

Terrell is a seasoned instructor with 20-plus years of fire service and construction know-how. He also holds a B.S. degree from Oklahoma State University. His experience in fire prevention, code management and the ability to effectively communicate a pro-active philosophy is reflected in Terrell's passion for education and code. Terrell received the "ICC Educator of the Year Award" in 2009. He has served as department chair and adjunct professor at the community college level. He utilizes theory, the intent of the code, along with hands-on application to create an exceptional learning experience.

